The Charities Commission and You

This workshop will cover why, when and how to register under the Charities Act – as well as what happens after registration.

Presented by Carol Cunningham, Education Advisor, Charities Commission

11.00 am – 11.55 am

Finding your way around Funding

The Funding Information Service provides accessible and comprehensive funding information for community groups, voluntary organisations and individuals.

Presented by Rachael Mansfield, Sales, Liaison & Communications Manager, Funding Information Service

1.00 pm – 1.55 pm

IHC Fundraising & IHC Volunteer Programme

Learn some of the techniques IHC uses to fund programmes that truly count and make real and significant differences in the lives of people living with intellectual disability.

Co-Presented by Lynn Fiebig, National Manager, IHC Fundraising & Karen Roberts, National Manager IHC Volunteering, Membership & Self Advocacy

2.00 pm – 2.55 pm

Funding Applications – A Funder's Perspective

It has often been said that a funder's job is easy, come and find out why this is not so!! Hear from a funder's perspective the dos and do nots of fund raising, learn what makes a successful application and how funders view the evaluation/accountability process.

Presented by Wayne Ward, Trust Manager, Canterbury Community Trust

3.00 pm – 3.55 pm

Make some noise – Be heard!

If funders have heard of your group – you're on the way! You need to think creatively and laterally to get your message out there.

Presented by Mike Williams, Station Manager, Fresh FM

Static Displays

The static displays will provide you with information on funding schemes, financial accountability, donor research, organisational development support, grants, contracts, scholarships, training, legislation and/or fundraising initiatives available. Most of these exhibitors will have a staff member on site to answer any of your questions.
